Company's Railroad, has been in the city, and the Mayor, Board of Aldermen, Merchants' Association and prominent citizens have been holding meetings and in consultation with him in regard to extending the road from either Raileigh or Bunn to Durham. It is how running from Spring Hope to Bunn, a distance of ten miles. A preliminary survey has been made from Spring Hope to Raileigh. The people of Durham are not asked to subscribe, but back the enterprise with their sympathy and encouragement. There is a belief here that the Atlantic Coast Line is back of the project, and is desirous of getting a share of Durham's immense business, which is now divided up among the six railroads already centring here. to Be Happy
